Dear UH Baseball Season-Ticket Holder:

Aloha and CHEEEE-hoo!

Huge Mahalos to you for your support of Rainbow Baseball! This 2023 season promises to be super exciting as we continue to build off of the success that we had last season. You all are a big reason why the Les is one of the toughest places to play in the country and we need you to bring the energy again this year!

With all the talent we have on our roster, you won't want to miss out on any of the action. From veteran local boys Matt Wong and Jacob Igawa leading the offense to Tai Atkins and Dalton Renne on the mound and newcomers Ben Zeigler-Namoa and Sean Rimmer, this year's Rainbows will create all the excitement to make each game a #PartyAtTheLes!

Our home schedule is loaded this year with perennial NCAA Tournament teams UConn, Tulane and Wright State, while our Big West schedule features league powerhouses in UC Santa Barbara and Long Beach State. There's no better place in the country than the Les to see Hawai'i's team!

With all the impact players we have returning coupled with a number of talented newcomers, our offense will have the ability to light up the scoreboard. Add in a strong pitching staff and solid defense and I believe we have the chance to compete for a Big West title and a spot in the NCAA Tournament.
